Dear Clive,

Thank you for your letter of 2 June regarding clarity on the recent rough sleeping figures.

Firstly, I would like to thank you, and all members of the Select Committee for supporting the Government in its work to reduce homelessness and rough sleeping. I note the issues raised in your letter and I will address these in the response to the Select Committee's interim report.

I am writing separately to inform you that the updated figures on the number of people accommodated during the COVID-19 pandemic will be published today, alongside a written ministerial statement.

Thank you again for contacting me on this important matter. I hope you find this information useful.

LUKE HALL MP
