Dear Kevin

The Committee today discussed reports that the size of the Windrush Advisory Group established in September 2019 and containing church leaders, lawyers and community representatives from a spread of geographical areas has reduced from nine members to seven and that two members of the group had tendered their resignation.

Would you confirm whether these reports are correct, and if so, for what reasons two members of the group have resigned from it and whether you intend to appoint replacement members?

How often has the group met since it was instituted, and what assessment has been made of its contribution and continuing function?

Yours sincerely
