Dear Prime Minister

I have received representations about seafarers who continue to remain stranded on their ships across the world because of the coronavirus pandemic, including up to 2,000 British seafarers. This is clearly an unsettling situation for those individuals and their families.

I was pleased to hear that the UK Maritime Minister will be leading the first international summit on the impact of COVID-19 on crew changes next month.

Could I urge that you also continue to press at the international level for this unfortunate situation to be resolved speedily.

Yours sincerely,

Huw Merriman MP
Chair of the Transport Committee
