

HOUSE OF LORDS

Conduct Committee: declarations of interest by lay members during 2019-21 parliamentary session

The date of the most recent amendment to each lay member's declaration is given after their names.

Cindy Butts, 20 September 2019

1. Paid work, including any employment or services provided as a contractor or director

Commissioner, Criminal Cases Review Commission (May 2019-present)
Independent Member, Speaker's Committee for the Independent Parliamentary Standards Authority (May 2019-present)
Independent Member Decision Making Body, Bar Standards Board (September 2019-present)
Senior Independent Panel Member, Ministry of Justice and Cabinet Office (May 2018-present)
Independent Member Nominations Committee, Press Recognition Panel (May 2018 – present)
Lay Panellist, Judicial Appointments Commission (May 2018 – present)
International Freelance Consultant (May 2018-present)
Training Judges and other senior officials from overseas on good governance, ethical decision making and citizen engagement.

2. Gifts and benefits, including travel and hospitality, either within or outside the UK
None

3. Any other financial or non-financial interests:

(a) Employment (paid or unpaid)

None

(b) Gifts, benefits and hospitality received by others

None

(c) Other miscellaneous interests, including voluntary and unpaid roles

Trustee – Kick it Out (September 2019-present)

John Mark Castle, 26 November 2020

1. Paid work, including any employment or services provided as a contractor or director

Chief Executive, Field Studies Council (and unremunerated director of FSC Trading Ltd, a wholly owned subsidiary)
Lay Council Member, Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons

2. Gifts and benefits, including travel and hospitality, either within or outside the UK
None

3. Any other financial or non-financial interests:

(a) Employment (paid or unpaid)

None

HOUSE OF LORDS

(b) Gifts, benefits and hospitality received by others

None

(c) Other miscellaneous interests, including voluntary and unpaid roles

None.

Andrea Coomber, 25 September 2019

1. Paid work, including any employment or services provided as a contractor or director

Director, JUSTICE

2. Gifts and benefits, including travel and hospitality, either within or outside the UK

None

3. Any other financial or non-financial interests:

(a) Employment (paid or unpaid)

None

(b) Gifts, benefits and hospitality received by others

None

(c) Other miscellaneous interests, including voluntary and unpaid roles

Trustee, British and Irish Legal Information Institute

Advisory Board Member, Initiative for Strategic Litigation in Africa

Advisory Board Member, Climate Litigation Network

Honorary Master of the Bench, Middle Temple

Dr Vanessa Davies, 7 December 2020

1. Paid work, including any employment or services provided as a contractor or director

Non-executive Director, Crown Office and Procurator Fiscal, Edinburgh

Lay Member, General Medical Council, January 2021 -

Legal and regulatory consultancy for the Faculty of General Dental Practice / College of General Dentistry, June 2020; Architects Registration Board, September 2020

Legal and management consultancy for the Good Law Project, June 2020; November-December 2020

2. Gifts and benefits, including travel and hospitality, either within or outside the UK

None

3. Any other financial or non-financial interests:

(a) Employment (paid or unpaid)

None

(b) Gifts, benefits and hospitality received by others

None

(c) Other miscellaneous interests, including voluntary and unpaid roles

Non-executive Director, QAA (the Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education in the UK); co-chair of its Advisory Committee on Degree Awarding Powers

Trustee, Law for Life – a charity for public legal education

Bench, Honourable Society of the Inner Temple