Dear Jeremy,

Edinburgh Reforms

Thank for you for your response regarding the Sub-Committee on Financial Services Regulation's work on the introduction of a consolidated tape.

As your letter states, the introduction of a UK consolidated tape was one of the many measures announced in your Edinburgh Reforms package.

Later this week, it will have been nine months since your Edinburgh Reforms speech.

Can you set out to the Committee the following:

- 1. A complete list of each policy you consider to be a strand of your Edinburgh reforms.
- 2. What progress has been made on each of the reforms.
- 3. A timescale of when each reform will have been implemented.

In line with the Committee's usual practice, I will be placing this letter and your response in the public domain. I would be grateful for a reply by 27 September 2023.
