

Treasury Committee

Tulip Siddiq MP
Economic Secretary to the Treasury
HM Treasury

By e-mail

Tuesday, 10 December 2024

Sexism in the City

Dear Tulip

Congratulations on taking on ministerial responsibility for Women in Finance. You will be aware of our predecessor Committee's inquiry into Sexism in the City and resulting Report, to which the previous Government responded before the General Election.

I would be grateful if you could update the Committee on progress made against the recommendations of that Report and set out your priorities for further supporting the development of women in this crucial sector of our economy over the coming years.

In line with the Committee's usual practice, I will be placing this letter and your response in the public domain. I would be grateful for a reply by 3 December.

Yours sincerely

Dame Meg Hillier MP
Chair of the Treasury Committee

Treasury Committee

Nikhil Rathi
Chief Executive
Financial Conduct Authority

By e-mail

Tuesday, 10 December 2024

Sexism in the City

Dear Nikhil

I write in relation to our predecessor Committee's inquiry into Sexism in the City to which you gave evidence, and resulting Report to which you provided a formal response.

I would be grateful if you could update the Committee on progress made against the recommendations of that Report, specifically providing information on the work that the FCA is doing with firms to address the concerns we raised.

In line with the Committee's usual practice, I will be placing this letter and your response in the public domain. I would be grateful for a reply by 3 December.

Yours sincerely

Dame Meg Hillier MP
Chair of the Treasury Committee

Treasury Committee

Sam Woods
Chief Executive
Prudential Regulation Authority

By e-mail

Tuesday, 10 December 2024

Sexism in the City

Dear Sam

I write in relation to our predecessor Committee's inquiry into Sexism in the City to which you gave evidence, and resulting Report to which you provided a formal response.

I would be grateful if you could update the Committee on progress made against the recommendations of that Report, specifically providing information on the work the PRA is doing with firms within its regulatory ambit to address the concerns we raised.

In line with the Committee's usual practice, I will be placing this letter and your response in the public domain. I would be grateful for a reply by 3 December.

Yours sincerely

Dame Meg Hillier MP
Chair of the Treasury Committee

Treasury Committee

Dame Amanda Blanc
Group Chief Executive Officer
Aviva plc
By e-mail

Tuesday, 10 December 2024

Sexism in the City

Dear Dame Amanda

I write in relation to our predecessor Committee's inquiry into Sexism in the City to which you gave evidence. The new Committee is grateful for your ongoing leadership on this important matter.

I would be grateful if you could update the Committee from your perspective as Women in Finance Charter Champion with your views on progress made against the recommendations of that Report, and to improve the landscape for women in financial services in the UK.

In line with the Committee's usual practice, I will be placing this letter and your response in the public domain. I would be grateful for a reply by 3 December.

Yours sincerely

Dame Meg Hillier MP
Chair of the Treasury Committee