Patricia,

Thank you for your letter of 22 January, and your invitation to give oral evidence to the Committee on the state of intergovernmental relations before the end of the UK Government's first year in office. Please accept my apologies for not replying sooner.

Unfortunately, I will be unable to accept this invitation due to my heavily committed diary. However, I would like to reiterate that Ministers in the Scottish Government are happy to assist the Committee with its inquiries on specific subjects, where that is appropriate.

Yours

JOHN SWINNEY
