Dear Meg

Reappointment of External Member to the Prudential Regulation Committee

I am writing to let you know that HM Treasury has reappointed Marjorie Ngwenya as an External Member to the Prudential Regulation Committee. Her second term will run from 5 September 2025 to 4 September 2028. This will soon be announced publicly.

Marjorie's significant contributions during her first term enhanced the Committee's work and her reappointment is supported by both the Governor of the Bank of England and the Deputy Governor for Prudential Regulation.

Her continued service will ensure the Committee continues to benefit from her extensive industry experience and expertise, supporting the government's mission to regulate for growth.

Yours sincerely,
