Dear Angus,

Thank you for your Committee's report on the United Kingdom's trade remedies policy which was published on 22nd March 2021.

As you know, we launched as the Trade Remedies Authority on 1st June 2021 and I'm proud of the progress we've already made in establishing ourselves. On day one, we published our Corporate and Business Plans which will give you some idea as to how we will operate both internally and externally with our stakeholders.

We are very keen to support the Committee in its work and look forward to a close working relationship. Perhaps you and I could meet for a discussion this autumn, then, at the end of March 2022, we could provide the Committee with an update reflecting on TRA's first 10 months of operating?

I have addressed each of the report's recommendations and conclusions for the TRA which is attached as an appendix and I hope you find our responses helpful.

Yours sincerely,

Simon Walker
Chair
