There are various reports on the impact of EU Research and Innovation funding programmes such as Horizon Europe. We have highlighted two examples below, the first of which is a mid-term review of Horizon 2020. This is a comprehensive deep dive that measures the wider and indirect benefits of Horizon Europe using a wide range of indicators. The second is a qualitative evaluation of completed projects funded by the European Research Council.

1. Interim evaluation of Horizon 2020
