The Prime Minister should not dismiss comments or contributions from the SNP MPs on the grounds that they are "just the SNP". ALL MPs, without exception, represent their constituents of any political persuasion and should be accorded the courtesy of being heard without clear intention to ignore them. Otherwise we lose the democratic right for our MPs to represent us and be heard.

I am not complaining as a member of any political party but in defence of my rights for my elected MP to have attention paid to him or her and not be dismissed so arrogantly on such grounds. It brings parliament into disrepute and the PM even more so. IT is not the cut and thrust of parliament but a deliberate diminution of MPs.
