Register? Only when there Local Authorities and Government are themselves properly educated on educational provision other than at school. Until that point it will only be seen as an intrusion on privacy and discriminatory. It is also coming from a system that has already failed many children, as statistics will confirm. In order to be sure that all children are receiving a suitable education the LA must be educated and learn how to identify and focus on the places where their support is needed or where a child's needs are not being met.

Home educated children have a potentially tailor-made education suited to their needs.
