

Written evidence submitted by Poldervaart

E scooters are silent and can be very fast. They are therefore potentially very dangerous and can cause serious injury in a collision.

For these reasons they :

- should only be ridden on the road – not in cycle lanes or on the pavement.
- should not be allowed in public parks and gardens.

June 2020